READ 180 Universal Stage C • Real Book Content Overview

Workshop Title	1: AT FIRST SIGHT	2: WHO AM I?	3: IT'S YOUR RIGHT	4: D-DAY	5: TO MARS AND BEYOND	6: MONEY MATTERS
Content Area	Psychology/Biology	Literature/Sociology	Government/Criminal Justice	History/International Relations	Astronomy/Robotics	Economics/Math
Description	Many experts—from doctors to detectives—make decisions based on visual evidence. But they often miss important details. How can we learn to sharpen our powers of perception?	In The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian , Junior, a high-school outcast, tries to rise above the life everyone expects him to live. In “Fish Cheeks,” Amy Tan just wants to be an all-American teen.	How do the 10 amendments in the Bill of Rights still protect individual liberties today? How do the courts continue to define our rights and balance government power?	In 1944, Adolf Hitler had taken over most of Europe. On June 6, the United States, Canada, and Great Britain set out to strike back. This massive invasion would change the course of World War II.	Scientists have found evidence of water on Mars. Is human life on Mars possible? What can we learn from the cosmos?	A practical guide for teens to managing money—earning, spending, and saving it.
Focus Question	How do we know whether we can believe what we see?	What makes us who we are?	How does the Bill of Rights continue to protect our rights today?	How did the Allies pull off the biggest land-sea invasion in history?	What do scientists hope to learn from exploring outer space?	How can you make and hold on to your money?

READ 180 Universal Stage C • Student App Segments

25 Unique Segments

When students work within the Student Application, they have the opportunity to select a Segment, or topic, that interests them. Each Segment connects to one or more Knowledge Clusters on the READ 180 Knowledge Map. Knowledge Clusters are groups of READ 180 content that focus on a particular high-interest topic. READ 180 Universal Knowledge Clusters have been thoughtfully selected to reside within a Knowledge Map that represents a cross-disciplinary journey toward the development of content knowledge. Meaningful learning time within each Knowledge Cluster allows students to explore content that fascinates and inspires them, giving them a reason to want to read and learn.
