

Woodcock-Muñoz Language Survey III

Announcing the Woodcock-Muñoz Language Survey III

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt® is proud to announce the development of the Woodcock-Muñoz Language Survey® III (WMLS™ III), the latest version of the trusted measure of English language proficiency.

Targeted for release in Spring 2017, the WMLS III provides quick and reliable assessment in the areas of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. WMLS III also features:

- Updated item content and artwork
- New test organization that helps examiners efficiently evaluate and monitor basic and applied language skills
- New checklists to better illustrate the impact of language background and academic language exposure on test results
- Two English forms and one Spanish form to help determine language proficiency, eligibility for ESL services, and readiness for English-only instruction
- Real-time calculation of results through streamlined, web-based scoring and comprehensive reporting—accessible for free* from any computer with an Internet connection

English-Spanish bilingual individuals are a rapidly growing segment of the population in most areas in the United States—make sure your organization is prepared to meet their needs with WMLS III.

Coming Soon: The WMLS III Teacher and Parent Intervention System

Available through a separate subscription, this enhancement to the WMLS III Online Scoring and Reporting System offers:

- Classroom interventions and diagnostic statements based on test results, linguistic characteristics, and oral language fluency level of the examinee
- Book recommendations based on tested ability
- ESL program recommendations and second-language scaffolding
- Leveled reader recommendations and second-language scaffolding
- Home-based activities to promote family participation in language instruction
